CCC Merger Inquiry Notice No. 53 of 2026

Notice of Inquiry into the Proposed Acquisition of Delivery Hero SE by Uber Technologies Inc. via Uber International Technologies II Corporation.

It is hereby notified in terms of Regulation 44(11) of the COMESA Competition and Consumer Protection Regulations (the "CCCPR") that the COMESA Competition and Consumer Commission (the "CCCC"), after receiving a notification in terms of Regulation 42 of the CCCPR regarding the proposed merger involving the proposed acquisition of Delivery Hero SE ("Delivery Hero" or the "Target Firm") by Uber Technologies, Inc. ("Uber") via Uber International Technologies II Corporation ("Uber International Technologies" or the "Acquiring Firm"), intends to embark on an inquiry in terms of Regulation 47 of the CCCPR. Uber International Technologies and Delivery Hero are collectively referred to as the "Parties".

The Parties submitted that Uber is a US-based ride-hailing and food delivery platform founded in 2009 that operates in over 70 countries. Uber also offers complementary services such as high-capacity vehicles and taxis, or the provision of marketing services on behalf of others. Within the Common Market, Uber operates in Egypt and Kenya.

The Parties submitted that the Target Firm, Delivery Hero, is a publicly listed company incorporated under the laws of Germany and headquartered in Berlin. Delivery Hero and its subsidiaries operate an online platform providing food and other consumer goods ordering and delivery services in over 60 countries across the Middle East, Africa, Europe, Asia, and the Americas using various brand names including, inter alia, HungerStation, talabat, Foodpanda, Glovo and PedidosYa. Within the Common Market, Delivery Hero operates in Egypt, Kenya, Tunisia and Uganda.

The proposed transaction concerns the acquisition by Uber International Technologies, of a majority of the share capital of Delivery Hero. Upon implementation of the proposed transaction, Uber will indirectly, through the Acquiring Firm, exercise sole control over Delivery Hero.

The CCCC will, in accordance with the provisions of the CCCPR, determine, among other things, whether the proposed transaction is likely to substantially lessen competition in the Common Market and whether the proposed transaction is or would be contrary to the public interest as provided for under Regulation 47 of the CCCPR.

All communication must be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer

In view of this, the CCCC hereby gives notice to all interested stakeholders, including competitors, suppliers and customers of the parties to the proposed transaction to submit written representations to the CCCC with regard to the subject matter of the proposed inquiry by emailing them to: Njumeer@comesacompetition.org. All written representations should be sent to the CCCC not later than Wednesday, 11 November 2026.

If you wish to seek further details and/or clarifications on any aspect of this proposed transaction or need assistance you may get in touch with Ms. Nadjmiya Jumeer, Principal Analyst, Competition Division on Tel: +265 (0) 111 772 466 or Njumeer@comesacompetition.org.

All written representations submitted to the CCCC will be treated with the strictest confidentiality and will only be used for the purpose of this inquiry.
